1.15.2 The dilution effects which may occur to shareholders can be categorized into 3 types as follows:

1) Control Dilution

If all Warrants are fully exercised but the Warrant Holders who exercise the Warrants are not the Company's existing shareholders, there will be dilution effect on shareholding percentage of the existing shareholders, where the existing shareholders' shareholding percentage will reduce by approximately 20.00 percent when compared with the shareholding percentage prior to the issue of the Warrants.

Control Dilution	=	Number of Shares Offered to Existing Shareholders / (Number of Issued Shares + Number of Shares Offered to Existing Shareholders)

2) Price Dilution

Following the issuance and offering of warrants, the company's shares will experience a price dilution of approximately 17.83%, based on the weighted average price over the 15 trading days prior to the Board of Directors meeting No. 1/2026 on February 23, 2026.

Price Dilution	=	(Market Price prior to Offering – Market Price after Offering) / Market Price prior to Offering
	=	(1.29 – 1.06) / 1.29
	=	17.38%

3) Earnings per Share Dilution

The company will be affected in terms of profit sharing by approximately 20.00% (calculated from the net profit of the last 4 quarters as of December 31, 2026).

Earnings per Share Dilution	=	(Earnings per Share prior to Offering – Earnings per Shares after Offering) / Earing per Share prior to Offering
	=	(0.10 – 0.08) / 0.10
	=	20.00%

2. Exercise of Warrants and Condition to Exercise of Warrants

- 3) In case of the last exercise date, if the Warrants are in the Scripless system, the TSD will issue the substitute of the Warrants and deliver to the Warrant Holders according to the names given from each securities company to the TSD regarding the accrual Warrant Holders. In this connection, the TSD will then deliver the substitute of the Warrants to the relevant securities companies which provide the Warrant Holders’ name so that the Warrant Holders can use the substitute of the Warrants as evidences for exercising of rights to purchase the ordinary shares in the last exercise.

3.1.4 Payment of ordinary shares

The Warrant Holders wishing to exercise Warrants to purchase for ordinary shares must make the payment for ordinary shares in full according to the exercised amount specified in the exercise notice at one time within the notification period for exercising Warrants as per Clause

2.3 above and shall not be later than each exercise date as per Clause 2.1, provided that the Warrant Holders must follow one of the following means:

1) Payment by Cash/Money Transfer into Bank Account

The Warrant Holders must make the payment for ordinary shares in full amount at one time according to the exercised amount specified in the exercise notice on the date that Warrant Holders notify his/her intention to exercise Warrants each time by means of money transfer to the bank account, namely, "ITTHIRIT NICE CORPORATION PUBLIC CO.,LTD. FOR SHARE SUBSCRIPTION, please deposit into Kasikorn Bank, Sanam Bin Nam Branch, Account Number 151-8-34683-7 only. Account Type: Savings Account."

The Warrant Holders who do the money transfer to such bank account must specify his/her name, last name and reachable telephone no. in deposit/money transfer slip.

In order to reduce the burden of transfer fees for common share payments to bank accounts, the Company recommends that warrant holders transfer common share payments or the exercise price of the aforementioned warrants to a bank account within Bangkok or the surrounding metropolitan area (as applicable).

In case of Payment by Cash/Money Transfer to Bank Account Such cash/money transfer to bank account must be made within the notification period for exercising Warrants as per Clause 2.3 and no later than each Exercise Date.

2) Payment by Cheque, Cashier Cheque, Draft or Bank Order

The Warrant Holders must make the payment by cheque, cashier cheque, draft or bank order which can be called for collection in Bangkok, which is subscribed and delivered to the Company within 11 am of 2 days prior to each exercise date. It has to be crossed, made payable to "ITTHIRIT NICE CORPORATION PUBLIC CO., LTD. FOR SHARE SUBSCRIPTION" and written name, surname, address, and telephone number on the back.

- 3) The Warrant Holders will be responsible for expense and bank fee incurred according to 1) and 2) (if any).
- 4) Please send the evidence of payment of exercise price to purchase ordinary shares together with other supporting documents as per Clause 3.1 to the Company at the contact place for exercise Warrants as per Clause 2.5.
- 5) The exercise of Warrants is deemed complete upon the full collection of payment by the Company. If the Company is unable to collect the payment in any cases which are not the fault of the Company, the Company is entitled to treat that such Warrant Holders have given up his/her right to subscribe the newly issued ordinary shares under the Warrants. In this regard, the Company shall individually inform the Warrant Holders to pick up the Warrants or the substitute of the Warrants together with such personal cheque, cashier cheque or draft within 14 days from each exercise date without any interests.

However, Warrant Holders can notify their intention to exercise such Warrants on the next exercise date, except for the last exercise date on which the rights to exercise the Warrants become expired without being exercised and the Company shall not be held liable for any interests or compensations arisen therefore in any way whatsoever.

- 6) The Warrant Holders shall be responsible for the cost of stamp duty and/or any tax incurred in connection with the exercise of Warrants. The Warrant Holders shall also comply with all relevant regulations or laws.

- 3.2 If the Company receives the Warrants or substitute of Warrants that the amount received is less than that specified in the exercise notice, or if the Company verifies that the details which the Warrant Holders have filled in the notification form becomes incomplete or incorrect, or the Company does not receive a proper amount of duty stamp required by all relevant regulations and laws, the Warrant Holders shall amend such incorrectness within the notification period. If the Warrant Holder fails to amend such incorrectness within such period, it shall be deemed that the notification of the intention to exercise the Warrants is nullified without being exercised. In this regard, the Company shall return money received to such Warrant Holders via registered mail within 10 days after the exercise date without any interests in whatsoever cases.
- 3.3 In exercising the Warrants, the Warrant Holders can either fully or partially exercise the Warrants held to purchase ordinary shares in the Company on each Exercise Date. For all Warrants, which have not been exercised within the Last Exercise Date, shall be deemed to have expired with no intention to exercise by Warrant Holders.
- 3.4 If the Warrant Holders do not pay for shares and/or tax in full or pays more than the amount required for the exercise, the Company reserves its right to proceed with one of the following alternatives as it sees fit:
 - 3.4.1 To deem that the notice of intention to exercise the Warrants shall have been nullified without any exercise of right as such; or
 - 3.4.2 To deem that the number of ordinary shares subscribed shall be equivalent to (1) the number of ordinary share which will actually receive according to their rights or (2) the numbers of ordinary share which will actually receive is as per then payment received by the Company according to the then exercise price and exercise ratio (whichever is lesser); or
 - 3.4.3 To demand the Warrant Holders to make payment for the balance of the exercise amount due for payment within the notification period. If the Company does not receive a payment (representing the balance of the exercise amount and/or the unpaid tax) within such period in full, it shall be deemed that the notice of intention to exercise Warrants shall have been nullified without any exercise of right as such. However, Warrant Holders can express their intentions to exercise the Warrants on the next exercise date, except for the last exercise date.

In case of 3.4.1 or 3.4.3 (for the case that Warrant Holder does not pay the remaining balance payment within the notification period) occurs, the Company shall notify such Warrant Holders to receive cash, cheque, cashier cheque or draft received by the Company (including Warrants or its substitute) without any interests within 14 days from each exercise date.

In case of 3.4.2, the Company shall notify the Warrant Holders regarding their exercised amount as deemed as partial exercise and return the unexercised Warrants by the registered mail within 30 days from the date following each exercise date. However, the unexercised warrant certificate is valid until the last exercise date.

In the event that Warrant Holders make the payment for shares and/or tax exceeding than the number of Warrants, the Company is entitled to treat that such subscription of ordinary shares shall be equivalent to the number of ordinary shares for the exercise of right as provided only. The Company shall return the excess money according to the exercise price of the Warrants by the registered mail within 14 days from the date following each exercise date. These returned amounts, without any interests shall be made by way of crossed cheque under the name of such Warrant Holders.

However, in any cases, if the Company correctly delivers the returned amounts to the Warrant Holders via registered mail to the address specified in exercise notice, it will be deemed that the Warrant Holders have already receive their compensation and have no right to claim for any interest or compensations further.

3.5 In each exercise, the Warrant Holders shall fully exercise their rights to subscribe ordinary shares only, provided that, the exercise ratio is 1 unit of Warrant to 1 unit of ordinary share, unless there is any change in rights adjustment as per clause 4.

3.6 The number of ordinary shares issued as a result of the exercise of Warrants shall be calculated by having the amount of money required for the exercise paid by the Warrant Holder as described above divided by the exercise price at that time of exercise. The Company shall issue ordinary shares in a non-fractional number not exceeding the number of the unit of the Warrants multiply by the Exercise Ratio. If there is an adjustment of the exercise price and/or exercise ratio causing ordinary shares to be in fraction after the calculation, the Company shall disregard such fraction and return the money remained from such exercise without any interest to the Warrant Holder via registered mail within 14 days after the exercise date according to methods and conditions set by the Company.

However, in any cases, if the Company correctly delivers the returned amounts to the Warrant Holders via registered mail to the address specified in exercise notice, it will be deemed that the Warrant Holders have already receive their compensation and have no right to claim for any interests and/or compensations further.

3.7 If the Warrant Holder, who wishes to exercise the Warrants has complied with all conditions to exercise the Warrants as specified in clause 2.3 i.e., submitting the warrant certificate or its substitute and the exercise notice as well as making a full payment of the subscription price, the Warrant Holders shall be unable to revoke such exercise of Warrants unless prior written consent of the Company is obtained.

- 3.8 After the lapse of the last exercise date, if the Warrant Holders has not yet exercise the right in the Warrants or not yet complied with all conditions for exercise of Warrants, it shall be deemed that such Warrants become invalid without being exercised and the Warrant Holders will be unable to exercise Warrants after the lapse of the Last Exercise Date.
- 3.9 After each exercise date, the Company shall inform the name of the Warrant Holders with TSD as the registrar of the Company. In this regard, the Company will register those Warrant Holders' name and its paid-up capital with the Ministry of Commerce in the amount corresponding with ordinary shares issued in each the exercise within 14 days after the relevant Exercise Date, as well as submitting the listing application ordinary shares derived from such exercise with the SET within 30 days after each Exercise Date.

During the period between the date that Warrant Holders notify their intention to exercise the Warrants and before the day that names of the Warrant Holders are registered in the share register book as the Company's ordinary shareholder, the Company shall regard the aforementioned Warrant Holders in the same status as other Warrant Holders who have not yet declared their intention to exercise their Warrants.

- 3.10 In the event that the Warrant Holder has submitted the Warrants in the amount exceeding the amount of its intention to exercise, the Company shall send the new warrant certificate representing the remaining Warrants to the Warrant Holders via registered mail within 14 days from the relevant exercise date and shall cancel the previous warrant certificate.
- 3.11 In the event that the shares reserved for the exercise of Warrants are not sufficient, the Company shall pay for the compensations as a result of the Warrant Holders being unable to exercise the Warrants. However, the Company shall not pay for such compensation to the Non-Thai Warrant Holders who was unable to exercise the Warrants due to the Foreign Shareholding Restriction.

3.12 Other conditions of the exercise

The Warrant Holders can exercise Warrant to purchase the Company's ordinary shares without restriction, except the exercises of the right to purchase shares causes foreigners to hold shares in the company more than 49 percent of the total issued shares of the company. In the event that the exercise of Warrants will result in the violation of the Foreign Shareholding Restriction, the Company reserves its right to reject any right to purchase the ordinary shares of such Warrant Holder. The Company shall not be responsible for any compensation to Non-Thai Warrant Holders who cannot exercise Warrants to purchase Company's ordinary shares due to the Foreign Shareholding Restriction as mentioned above.

The Company reserves the right to amend the Company's Articles of Association in the Chapter regarding transfer of share after the issuance of the Warrants. It shall be deemed that the amendment to the Articles of Association shall have an effect on the conditions attached to the exercise of the Warrants from the completion date of registration with the Ministry of Commerce onwards.

4. Adjustment of Warrants

4.1 The Company must proceed the adjustment of the exercise price and the exercise ratio of the warrant, in order to maintain the benefits of the Warrant Holders upon the occurrences of the following events before the maturity date:

4.1.1 When the Company changes par value of the Company's ordinary shares as a result of the integration or separation of the Company's issued shares.

The change of the exercise price and the exercise ratio shall take effect from the date that the par value of the Company's ordinary share has been announced by SET electronic information disclosure system (SETLink)

(a) The exercise price will be adjusted according to the following formula:

$$\text{Price 1} = \text{Price 0} \times \frac{[\text{Par 1}]}{[\text{Par 0}]}$$

(b) The exercise ratio will be adjusted according to the following formula:

$$\text{Ratio 1} = \text{Ratio 0} \times \frac{[\text{Par 0}]}{[\text{Par 1}]}$$

Where	Price 1	is	New exercise price after the adjustment
	Price 0	is	Exercise price before the adjustment
	Ratio 1	is	New exercise ratio after the adjustment
	Ratio 0	is	Exercise ratio before the adjustment

	Par 0	is	Par value before the adjustment

4.1.2 When the Company offers to sell newly issue ordinary shares to existing shareholders and/or by way of public offering and/or private placement (as the case may be) with the net price per share of new ordinary shares being lower than "90 percent the market price of the Company's ordinary shares".

The adjustment of the exercise price and the exercise ratio shall take effect immediately from the first day that the Warrant Holders will not be entitled to subscribe for the new ordinary shares (the first day that posts XR sign) in case of rights offering, and/or the first day of the offer of new ordinary shares is made by way of public offering and/or private placement, as the case may be.

“The average price per share of newly issued ordinary shares” is calculated from the total amount of money that the company will receive minus the offering expenses in the offering of securities (if any) and divided by the total number of new ordinary shares issued.

“The market price of the Company’s ordinary share” means the total trading value of the Company’s ordinary shares divided by the number of Company’s all ordinary shares that were traded on the MAI during the duration of 15 consecutive business days prior to the date that is used for calculation. (The day on which the SET is opened for the stock trading) In case that “The market price of Company’s ordinary shares” cannot be obtained because there were no trading of the Company’s ordinary shares during the above mentioned period, the Company shall determine the fair price to be used in the calculation instead.

“The calculation date” means the first day that Warrant Holders will not be entitled to obtain the rights to subscribe to the newly issued ordinary shares offering to the existing shareholders (Rights Issue) and/or the first day of the offering of new shares by way of public offering and/or the first date that has been agreed to sell and purchase newly issued ordinary shares to a private placement, as the case may be.

If the offer of new shares is made for more than 1 offer price for ordinary shares at the time with the condition that the subscriptions must be made for all, the number of shares and all the offer prices must be calculated to obtain the average price of new shares. But if the offerings are not in the condition that the subscriptions must be made for all, the number of shares and the offer price that is lower than 90 percent of the “market price of the Company’s ordinary shares” must be calculated to obtain the average price of new shares.

(a) The exercise price will be adjusted according to the following formula:

$$\text{Price 1} = \text{Price 0} \times \frac{[(A1 \times MP) + B1X]}{[MP \times (A1 + B1)]}$$

(b) The exercise ratio will be adjusted according to the following formula:

$$\text{Ratio 1} = \text{Ratio 0} \times \frac{[MP \times (A1 + B1)]}{[(A1 \times MP) + B1X]}$$

Where	Price 1	is	New exercise price after the adjustment
	Price 0	is	Exercise price prior to the adjustment
	Ratio 1	is	New exercise ratio after the adjustment

In case of rights offering, and/or public offering and/or private placement, as the case may be, plus the sum of money to be received from the exercise of conversion or exercise of convertible or exercisable securities.

4.1.4 When the Company distributes dividend, whether in whole or in part, in form of newly issued ordinary shares to the Company's ordinary shareholders.

The adjustment in exercise price and the exercise ratio will come to effect immediately, commence from the first day the purchasers of ordinary shares are not entitled to stock dividend (the first day that posts XD sign).

(a) Exercise Price can be adjusted using the following formula:

$$\text{Price 1} = \text{Price 0} \times \frac{[A3]}{[A3 + B3]}$$

(b) Exercise Ratio can be adjusted using the following formula:

$$\text{Ratio 1} = \text{Ratio 0} \times \frac{[A3 + B3]}{[A3]}$$

Where Price 1 is New exercise price after the adjustment

Price 0 is Exercise price prior to the adjustment

Ratio 1 is New exercise ratio after the adjustment

Ratio 0 is Exercise ratio prior to the adjustment

A3 is Number of total paid-up ordinary shares on the date before the closing of share register book for the right to receive share dividend

B3 is Number of newly issued ordinary shares offered to the existing shareholders as share dividend

4.1.5 In the event that the Company pays dividends in cash at a rate exceeding 100 percent of the net profit according to the Company's separate financial statements, after deduction of corporate income tax, for the operations of any accounting period, whether such dividend payment is made from operating results or retained earnings during the term of the Warrants. The calculation of the dividend payout ratio to shareholders shall be determined by dividing the actual dividends paid from the operating results or retained earnings for each accounting period in such year, by the net profit after deduction of corporate income tax and legal reserves for the operating results of that same accounting period.

Changes to the exercise price and exercise ratio will take effect immediately from the first day that common shareholders are no longer entitled to receive dividends (the first day the Stock Exchange announces the XD mark for common shares).

The percentage of dividends paid to shareholders shall be calculated by dividing the actual dividends paid from operating results or retained earnings for each accounting period by the net profit according to the company's separate financial statements after deducting corporate income tax and legal reserves for the operating results of that accounting period. The actual dividends paid shall include interim dividends paid during that accounting period (if any).

“The market price of the Company’s ordinary share” means the total trading value of the Company’s ordinary shares divided by the number of Company’s ordinary shares that were traded during the duration of 15 consecutive business days prior to the date that is used for the calculation (The day on which the SET is opened for the trading) In case that “The market price of Company’s ordinary shares” cannot be obtained because there were no trading of the Company’s ordinary shares during the above mentioned period, the Company shall determine the fair price to be used in the calculation instead.

The calculation date” means the first day that Warrant Holders will not be entitled to obtain the rights to obtain stock dividend (the first day that posts XD sign for the ordinary shares).

(a) Exercise Price can be adjusted using the following formula:

(b) Exercise Ratio can be adjusted using the following formula:

$$\text{Ratio 1} = \text{Ratio 0} \times \frac{\text{MP}}{[\text{MP} - (\text{D} - \text{R})]}$$

Where Price 1 is New exercise price after the adjustment

Price 0 is Exercise price prior to the adjustment

Ratio 1 is New exercise ratio after the adjustment

Ratio 0 is Exercise ratio prior to the adjustment

MP is “The market price of the Company’s ordinary shares” as described in clause 4.1.5

D is Dividend per share actually paid to the shareholders

R is Dividend per share, if calculated by using 100 percent of the net profit after tax divided by the total number of eligible shares that is eligible for receiving dividends.

4.1.6 In case where there are circumstances that cause the Warrant Holders to lose their obtainable rights or benefits, and those circumstances are not described in (4.1.1) to (4.1.5).

The Company will consider to fix and adjust the new exercise price and/or the new exercise ratio of Warrants to ensure that the rights of the Warrant Holders are no less favourable.

- 4.2 The calculation for adjustment of the exercise price and exercise ratio according to 4.1.1 to 4.1.6 is independent from one another and calculates the change in sequence of the events comparison with the market price of the Company's ordinary shares. In case that more than one circumstance simultaneously occurs, the calculations for adjustments shall be made in a respective order of 4.1.1, 4.1.5, 4.1.4, 4.1.2, 4.1.3 and 4.1.6 with a 2-decimal digit number for the exercise price and 4-decimal digit number for the exercise ratio.
- 4.3 To calculate the adjustment of the exercise price and the exercise ratio as per 4.1.1 to 4.1.6 will not affect a new exercise price to be higher and/or the exercise ratio to be lower, except for integration of shares.

In the case of ordinary shares arising from each exercise of Warrants (4 decimal digits of new Exercise Ratio after the adjustment) calculate the fraction of ordinary shares, then disregard the fraction and after the price change (2 decimal digits) multiplied by the number of ordinary shares in the exercise period is calculated the fraction of Thai baht, the truncation of the Baht dropping.

If the exercise price changes and results the new exercise price calculated by the formula to be lower than the par value of the ordinary shares of the Company, the par value of the ordinary shares of the Company shall be used as the exercise price and the exercise ratio, as defined in 4.1.1 to 4.1.6 shall be adopted.

- 4.4 In the event of adjustment of exercise price and exercise ratio according 4.1.1 to 4.1.6 or terms of Warrants. The Company shall proceed as follows:
- 4.4.1 The Company shall inform the result of such adjustment to the Warrant Holders via ELCID system (SETLink) immediately or before the date that the adjusted exercise price or the exercise ratio of Warrants becomes effective or no later than 9.00 a.m. of such date.
- 4.4.2 The Company shall inform to the SEC regarding the result of such adjustment by providing details of calculation and rational of such adjustment to the SEC so as to notify the adjusted exercise price, the exercise ratio of Warrants or amended terms of Warrants including the summarized facts of cause of adjustment, method of calculation within 15 days from the day of the occurrence of event which causes the adjustment of exercise price and ratio of Warrants or terms of Warrants.

5. The status of Warrants during the date the Warrant Holders notify their intention to exercise the Warrants

5.1 The status of Warrants during the date the Warrant Holders notify their intention to exercise the Warrants until the date before the Ministry of Commerce registers the paid-up capital increase as the result from the exercise of Warrants will have the same rights as the unexercised Warrants and the status of such Warrants will end on the date that the Ministry of Commerce has accepted the registration of the paid-up capital increase, resulting from the exercise of such Warrants.

5.2 In the case where the Company has adjusted the exercise price and/or exercise ratio while the Company has not yet registered the newly issued ordinary shares that intended for the exercises of right of the Warrants with the Ministry of Commerce, the Company will retroactively proceed the right adjustment for the Warrant Holders by issuing additional shares to the Warrant Holders as soon as possible to ascertain that the Warrant Holders receive a number of shares as they would have received if they were to exercise Warrants subsequent to the right adjustment. The Warrant Holders may receive the additional shares after the previously received shares, but not later than 15 days from the right adjustment date for the scrip system and not later than 7 days from the right adjustment date for the Scripless system.

6. Rights of new ordinary shares derived from the exercise of Warrants

The new ordinary shares derived from the exercise of Warrants are entitled to benefits as previously issued and fully paid-up ordinary shares of the Company as well as the rights to receive dividend or other benefits granted to shareholders by the Company as from the date that and the Ministry of Commerce registered increase of the Company's paid-up capital and the registrar have registered the Warrant Holders' names as the Company's shareholders and the Company declared dividend.

7. Resolution to the allocation of the newly issued ordinary shares in order to be reserved for exercising the rights of the Warrants

The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on April 21, 2026, resolved to approve the allocation of 67,500,000 newly issued ordinary shares with a par value of 0.50 baht per share to accommodate the exercise of warrants with an exercise price of 0.50 baht per share. The number of ordinary shares allocated to accommodate the exercise of warrants represents no more than 25.00% of the total issued shares of the company, as detailed in the calculation in Clause 1.7.

8. Details of ordinary shares reserve for the exercise of Warrants

8.1. Key characteristics of the shares

Number of newly issued reserved shares for the exercise of Warrants	:	67,550,000 shares
The percentage of the number of shares reserved for the exercise of Warrants in comparison with total of issued share of the Company	:	25.00 percent
Par value	:	Baht 0.50 per share

Exercise Price : Baht 0.50 per share
(Except for the case where the exercise price has been changed in accordance with the adjustment condition)

8.2. Secondary market for reserved shares of exercise of Warrants

The Company will list the shares derived from the exercise of Warrants with the MAI within 30 days from the relevant exercise date. This is to enable such ordinary shares to trade on the MAI, as the previously issued ordinary shares of the Company.

8.3. Procedures for remaining ordinary shares from the exercise of the Warrants

After the expiration of Warrants, all remaining reserved shares will be proposed to the shareholders' meeting for further consideration of capital reduction.

9. Delivery of the ordinary shares from the exercise of the Warrants

According to the exercise of the Warrants, the Warrant Holders may require the Company to proceed (which must be clearly specified in exercise notice) with one of the following options:

9.1 If the Warrant Holders who exercise Warrants would like to receive share certificate in the names of Warrant Holder (the Scrip System), TSD will deliver the share certificates, according to the number of shares purchased, via registered mail to the name and address specified in the exercise notice within 15 business days after each Exercise Date. In this case, the Warrant Holders will not be able to sell shares issued as a result of the exercise of Warrants on the MAI until they receive the relevant warrant certificate, which can be obtained after the ordinary shares start trading on the MAI.

9.2 In case the Warrant Holders would like to deposit the shares into the securities issuer's account, member Number. 600, TSD will record the number of ordinary shares in the Company which the Warrant Holders wish to deposit into the securities issuer's account, Member Number 600 within 7 business days from each Exercise Date. In case the Warrant Holders would like to sell their shares, they are required to withdraw the from the securities issuer's account, Member Number 600 as stated. In this regard, they need to contact securities companies, who may charge some operating fee as determined by the securities depository and/or by the securities companies. Hence, in this case, the Warrant Holders can sell shares issued as a result of exercising Warrants in the Stock Market soon after the SET has approved the trading of such shares on the MAI, and the Warrant Holders have already completed the withdrawal of their shares from the securities issuer's account number 600.

9.3 In case the Warrant Holders would like to deposit the ordinary shares derived from the exercise of Warrants into the securities trading account which the Warrant Holders have opened with the securities companies, the Company will arrange TSD to issue the share certificate according to the number of shares derived from the exercise of Warrants in the name of "Thailand Securities Depository Company Limited for Depositors" and TSD will record the number of shares in the account of such securities companies. At the same time, the securities companies will record the number of shares deposited that such Warrant Holders deposited with TSD and issue the evidence of deposit of such shares to the Warrant Holders within 7 business days from each Exercise Date. In this case, the Warrant Holders can sell the ordinary shares derived from the exercise of Warrants on the MAI as soon as the SET permits shares to be trade on the MAI. If the Allotted Warrant Holder chooses the Company to proceed Clause 9.3, the Warrant Holder's name on the exercise notice must be the same as the name of owner of securities account that the Warrant Holders would like to deposit the shares into, otherwise the Company reserves the right to issue the shares to the Warrant Holders pursuant to Clause 9.1 instead.

If the Warrant Holders do not specify one of the options in the exercise notice, the Company reserves the right to issue the share certificates to the Warrant Holders pursuant to clause 9.1 instead.

10. Compensation in case of Company Being Unable to Arrange for Ordinary Shares Reserved for Exercise of Warrants

10.1 Compensation

In the event that the Company is unable to arrange for reserved shares in an adequate amount for the exercise of Warrants, the Company will compensate only to the Warrant Holders who notify their intention to exercise their rights in each notification period and follow the prescribed procedures and the Company is unable to provide sufficient ordinary shares for the exercise of Warrants, except in the case that are specified in the transferring restriction of Warrants as described in Clause 11.

10.2 Compensatory Payment

Pursuant to compensation payment specified in Clause 10.1, the Company will compensate by way of crossed cheque and send it via registered mail to the Warrant Holders at the address specified in notification form within 14 days after each exercise date, without interest. However, in any cases, if the Company correctly delivers refunded cheque via registered mail to the address specified in exercise notice, it will be deemed that the Warrant Holders have already receive their compensation and have no right to claim for any interests or compensations further.

10.3 Calculation of Compensation

The calculation of compensation that the Company shall pay to the Warrant Holders in Clause 10.1 are as follows:

Compensation per 1 unit of Warrants = $B \times [MP - Price]$

Where B is the number of ordinary shares that cannot be arranged for exercise of Warrants and/or increased according to the increase of exercise ratio per 1 unit

MP is “market price of the Company’s shares” meaning the total trading value of the Company’s shares divided by the total number of the Company’s shares being traded on the MAI for the period of 15 consecutive trading days to the date used for the calculation (The day on which the Stock Market is opened for the stock trading). In case that “The market price of Company’s ordinary shares” cannot be obtained because there was no trading of the Company’s ordinary shares during the above mentioned period, the Company shall determine the fair price to be used in the calculation instead.

Price is Exercise price of Warrants of Baht 0.50 per share or the exercise price according to the adjustment of exercise price

In case where non-Thai Warrant Holders exercise the Warrants to purchase ordinary shares but cannot purchase such shares because the shareholding percentage of the non-Thai shareholders at that time exceeds the limit as stipulated in the Company’s Articles of Association, the Company will not compensate nor take any action for the non-Thai Warrant Holders. In such case, the Non-Thai Warrant Holders will have no right to claim for compensation nor claim the Company to make any payments. The Warrants, anyhow, is still valid till the Last Exercise Date. If on the Last Exercise Date the Non-Thai Warrant Holders still cannot exercise their rights because the shareholding percentage of the foreign shareholding at that time exceeds the limit as stipulated in the Company’s Articles of Association, the said Warrants are deemed to expire while the Non-Thai Warrant Holders have no right to claim the Company for any compensation, and the Company will not pay any compensation.

11. Restrictions on Transfer of Warrants, Restrictions on Exercise of Warrants and Restriction on Transfer of Ordinary Shares Deriving from Exercise of Warrants

11.1 Restrictions on Transfer of Warrants

The Warrants have no transferring restrictions. The company will not close the Warrant Holder Register Book to suspend the transfer of Warrants except in case of except for the last exercise which the Company will close the Warrant Holder Register Book to suspend the transfer of Warrants for 21 days prior to the last exercise date and the SP sign will be posted (Suspended) 2 business days prior to the book closing date or closing the Warrant Holder Register Book for determining the Warrant Holders’ right in attending the meeting, as prescribed in Clause 13.

11.2 Restrictions on Exercise of Warrants due to Foreign Shareholding Restriction

11.2.1 The Company will not issue ordinary shares to Non-Thai Warrant Holders or a juristic person without Thai nationality if such issuance causes the foreign shareholding to exceed 49 percent of the total issued shares in the Company as stated in the Company’s Articles of Association.

11.2.2 If the aforementioned exercise restriction as specified in Clause 11.2.1 causes the Non-Thai Warrant Holders, who exercise the Warrants in Clause 3, to be unable to exercise Warrants as specified in the exercise notice either partially or in whole, the Company shall allow the exercise of Warrants only for the amount that comply with the transfer restriction. In this regard, the Company will return Warrant certificates and the balance of the exercise price of Warrants (which could not be exercised by a Non-Thai Warrant Holder) without interest via registered mail within 14 days from each Exercise Date.

11.2.3 The Company shall be allowed to proceed with the exercise of the Warrants for the part that has not yet been exercised as described in Clause 11.2.2. in part or in whole on the First Exercise Date without prejudice to any restriction. However, if there are more Warrants that are pending for exercising than the number of ordinary shares that are allowed to purchase and without contradict to the Foreign Shareholding Restriction on such Exercise Date, the Company shall proceed with exercises of Warrants for the Non-Thai Warrant Holders in priority order of complete notification of exercise of Warrants.

11.2.4 In case where Non-Thai Warrant Holders exercise the Warrants to purchase ordinary shares but cannot purchase because the shareholding of the non-Thai shareholders at that time exceeds the limit as stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association (which exercising the right causes an foreign shareholding to exceed 49 percent of the total issued shares of the Company) in such case, the Non-Thai Warrant Holders will have no right to claim for compensation with the Company and the Company shall not compensate for any losses incurred.

In case where the Warrant Holders have submitted their intentions to the Company on the Last Exercise Date, and those Warrant Holders cannot exercise due to the Foreign Shareholding Restriction, it shall be deemed that the Warrants become expired. The Warrant Holders shall not have no rights to claim for compensations from the Company and the Company shall not indemnify or compensate for any losses occurred.

11.3 Restriction on Transfer of Ordinary Shares

The Company's Articles of Association (Clause 10) currently state that the Company's shares are transferable without restriction, unless such transfer would result in the foreign shareholding ratio in the Company exceeding 49 percent of the total issued shares. The Company reserves the right to refuse the registration of any share transfer that would cause the foreign shareholding ratio of the Company to exceed the aforementioned threshold.

In this regard, the Company reserves the right to amend the Articles of Association in the section concerning share transfers subsequent to the issuance of these Warrants, and such amendments to the Articles of Association shall be deemed effective and binding upon the exercise conditions of these Warrants from the date of registration with the Ministry of Commerce onwards.

12. Background for Offer Price of Securities Offered

There is no offer price of the Warrants as the Warrants are issued to existing shareholders with no consideration.

13. Warrant Holders' Meeting

13.1 The Holding of Warrant Holders' Meeting

- 13.1.1 The Company may hold the Warrant Holders' meeting at any time. However, the holding of such Warrant Holders' meeting shall not be made for the purpose of the amendment to the Terms and Condition of Warrants regarding extension of the term of the Warrants or change of exercise price or ratio except for adjustment of the exercise price and/or the exercise ratio of the warrant, as prescribed in Clause 4.
- 13.1.2 The Company must hold the Warrant Holders' meeting if there is significant event that may have material effect on the interest of Warrant Holders or ability of the Company to comply with its duties under the Terms and Condition of Warrants. The Company may hold the Warrant Holders' meeting at any time to amend the Terms and Conditions of Warrants.
- 13.1.3 At least of 25 Warrant Holders holding altogether at least 10 percent of units of the unexercised Warrants at that time may jointly submit a petition to request the Company to convene a meeting of Warrant Holders. In this case, the Company is required to hold a Warrant Holders' meeting within 45 days from the date that the Warrant Holders submit their request for holding the Warrant Holders' meeting in writing to the Company, or from the date of the occurrence of one of the following events;

- 1) There is a proposal or request to amend the material term of Warrants as specified in Clause 14.2. However, the Company and/or the Warrant Holders are not entitled to purpose of the amendment to the term of Warrants to extend the term of the Warrants or change of exercise price or exercise ratio, except for adjustment of the exercise price and/or the exercise ratio of the Warrants, as prescribed in clause 4.
- 2) In the case where there is a significant event that at least of 25 Warrant Holders holding altogether at least 10 percent of units of the unexercised Warrants at that time, viewing that there might be any impact to the benefits of the Warrant Holders, or to the ability of the Company to proceed according to the terms and conditions of Warrants and the aforesaid Warrant Holders request for holding the Warrant Holders' meeting in writing to the Company.
